

Invocation for the 1111 Portal

I now overcome any existing challenge or difficulty through the INFINITE POWER. Any existing issue or problem is divinely outmatched. I now deal and grapple with it courageously knowing that all the required Power, Wisdom, Protection and Strength is given and provided to me in expected and unexpected ways.

I have unquestioning faith and trust that my choice of GOD knows the answer and I am one with its INFINITE POWER. It reveals to me the way out, the peaceful resolution, the harmonious closure and the happy ending.

I walk in this assumption and as I do this daily, I can feel and experience the mountain of obstacles disappearing and going out of sight, out of mind and getting dissolved in the white and golden love and light of INFINITE POWER. I believe this and I accept it wholeheartedly. And all my desires and intentions achieve their sweet and divine fructification in this year of ONE ! And so it is ! And so be it ! Thank you Universe !
